Venue: IBA City Campus

Timing: 9:00 am – 5:00 pm

Islamic Social Finance & Fund-raising Instruments

COURSE DESCRIPTION

IBA Centre for Excellence in Islamic Finance (IBA CEIF) is pleased to offer a two-day advance level course on mobilizing Islamic finance for NGOs. The course is targeted towards social entrepreneurs and organizations interested in making a social impact by equitable distribution of wealth appropriate to the Islamic finance mechanisms.

The course, thus, is meant to create awareness amongst social organizations as to the fund-raising methods compliant with Islamic finance. It will highlight the significance of social organizations in Islamic teachings, explore the Islamic ways of economic collection and distribution of wealth as well as modern technological methods that could be combined for a successful completion of socio-economic impact projects.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

The course aims to:

- Review the resurgence of Islamic Social Finance techniques
- Understand the Islamic Social Economic Practice and Social Entrepreneurship
- Analyze the theoretical underpinnings of Zakat & Waqf
- Learn the micro & macro fund raising using classical instruments
- Assess the social impact pay for successful financial instruments
- Know how to structure Islamic Social Finance instruments, hybridization and measurement
- Apprise of the Fintech application and the use of Blockchain in collection, distribution and disclosure
- Evaluate differences in interpretation and ensure effective oversight
