

IBA Islamic finance center to impart training at Maldives University

AMANULLAH KHAN

KARACHI

The Director of the Centre for Excellence in Islamic Finance at the IBA, Ahmed Ali Siddiqui, visited the Islamic University of Maldives on the 18th of July, 2017 for a training session on Islamic Banking and Finance. During his visit, Ahmed signed a Memorandum of Understanding with the Deputy VC of IUM, Dr. Mariyam Shahuneeza Naseer to work on collaborations for cross border learning opportunities in Islamic Finance.

Ahmed also conducted a fruitful meeting with the Senior Management of the Bank of Maldives, including Zulkarnain Bin Taman, Director of BML Islamic and their team to discuss effective propositions for international linkages within the industry for the Centre.