CIPA is a professional specialized certification in Islamic accountancy offered by AAOIFI. It is designed to equip candidates with the requisite technical understanding and professional skills on accountancy and related fields (such as audit, risk management, governance, law, and tax) for international Islamic banks and financial institutions. The certification places greater emphasis on practical knowledge and real-world applications (and exercises) to deliver an enhanced and optimized learning experience.

The Future Belongs to Islamic Finance

- Islamic finance is based on ethics and Shari'ah which seeks to promote equity, fairness, transparency, social harmony, and justice in the world of business and commerce;
- The key prohibitions in Islamic finance include, but not limited to: Riba (or Interest / Usury), Gharar (excessive uncertainty or ignorance leading to unknown outcomes), and Qimar or Masyir (gambling, speculation, and betting)
- The global Islamic Economy is worth USD 6.7 trillion<sup>1</sup> and is set to become the next frontier in global financial expansion as 300+ conventional financial institutions have Islamic finance offerings.
- Non-Muslim countries such as UK, Luxembourg, Singapore, and Hong Kong are vying to become Islamic Finance global or regional hubs. David Cameron, Former PM of UK, said 'I want London to stand alongside Dubai and Kuala Lumpur as one of the greatest capitals of Islamic finance anywhere in the world'. (World Islamic Economic Forum, 2013)
